Although youngsters at MasterSchool are closely supervised (and lovingly cared for!), we cannot be responsible for accidents or illnesses. We must ask, therefore, that parents sign the following release:

I understand that MasterSchool is not responsible for any accidents or illnesses. In the event of an emergency, if parents cannot be contacted, permission is given to obtain whatever emergency medical treatment is necessary for my child. I further understand that MasterSchool is not responsible for the kind of medical treatment provided nor for the costs incurred.
